25X1X

The dismantled and later reconditioned buildings of the Puetnitz airfield now belong to the Bodden shipyard. A Soviet guard detail of 10 men has been stationed at the field since November 1949. Individual Soviet aircraft have repeatedly landed at and, after a short stay, taken off from the field since the Fall of 1949.

Comment:

No changes occurred at the field as compared to observations made during previous months. The utilization of the field buildings by the shipyard was confirmed by a previous report. No air unit is stationed in Puetnitz.
